Catterick's Comments

GOOD evening everyone and welcome to Deepdale for the first of three successive home fixtures. We hope to get back on the winning trail after a disastrous spell which has seen us lose four matches. The two home defeats, both by the only goal were real body blows and quite unexpected. On neither occasion did we really get going and consequently our promotion challenge has faded.

However, it was encouraging on Saturday to see us dominate the game at Hillsborough for long periods but with luck deserting us, another defeat was the outcome. Stephen Doyle made a significant contribution and we look forward with anticipation to his further progress. The next three home games are very important for us so that we can finish the season in a respectable position so I hope you will all continue to support the team despite our recent disappointing run. Throughout this period, and indeed throughout the season as a whole, the players have given their all for North End. The effort they have put into the game has been tremendous and I must pay tribute to all of them for their wonderful team spirit and work rate.

You will notice elsewhere in the programme that we have printed details for voting for the Player of the Year Award. I am sure you all have your own views on who deserves this award and we hope you will take this opportunity of casting your vote. The last two winners of the award have been Mike Elwiss in 1975 and Gary Williams last year. Three players have been ever-present this season—goalscorers-in-chief Alex Bruce and Mike Elwiss plus our stalwart defender Mark Lawrenson. Goalkeeper, Roy Tunks, has had a good season and Gordon Coleman has worked very hard.

Francis Burns too has battled through the season despite niggling injuries and Gary Williams too has played his part. Jimmy Brown, John Smith, John McMahon, Stephen Doyle, David Sadler, Mick Baxter, Barrie Mitchell and Danny Cameron must all come into the reckoning because this season has been very much a team effort.

The award this year will be made at Clouds Nightspot in Preston on Wednesday, 4th May. We are combining our event with the Preston heat of Miss Great Britain, so it looks like being a great night for Preston Supporters'. Tickets will be available this week—price £1 each. Please enquire at the Development or Main Office or Clouds in town. Don't forget your votes too.

And so to our visitors this evening, Chesterfield. We extend to them a very warm welcome especially their manager, Arthur Cox, who has strong connections with North End. It promises to be an entertaining game and hope to see you all here again on Saturday for our match versus Reading.

...Chesterfield

The Club

The Chesterfield club was founded in 1866, turned professional in 1891 and gained admittance to the Football League's Second Division eight years later. After failing to gain re-election in 1909, they went non-League until becoming a founder member of Division Three (North) in 1921.

It took them ten years of Third Division football to build a side good enough to win the championship and step back into Division Two. Two years later they were back again but they worked their way up once more in 1936. Though the war interrupted their progress, Chesterfield probably fielded their finest team just after it ended.

They created a club record by finishing fourth in Division Two in 1947.

Unfortunately, Chesterfield couldn't maintain their early post-war standard and relegation overtook them again in 1951. Exactly ten years later they were bottom of the Third Division and dropped into the basement, there to stay until taking the Fourth Division championship in 1970.

The Players

A dramatic change of fortunes around December saw Chesterfield slump from a position of comfort and become deeply involved in the relegation issue. One of the reasons was a sudden loss of scoring power.

In an attempt to combat this failing, manager Arthur Cox made several new signings before the transfer deadline. He negotiated the transfer of forwards Rick Green (Scunthorpe) and Stuart Parker (Southend), plus midfield man, or forward, Colin Tartt (Port Vale).

Green, who was Scunthorpe's top scorer with 16 goals last season, was quickly off the mark for his new club with both goals in a 2–0 success over Sheffield Wednesday. Parker, who was Southend's top scorer with 18 goals when he left, began his career with Blackpool and moved on to Southend on a free transfer in 1975.

The new forwards have provided stern competition for Steve Cammack and Harry Charlton, who had been playing earlier in the season, and Rod Fern.

Cammack was a member of England's UEFA Youth Cup winning side in 1972 shortly after making his First Division bow for Sheffield United.

Charlton was once a Middlesbrough player but, after loan periods with Hartlepool and Chesterfield in 1975–6, he completed the transfer to Chesterfield at the end of that season.

Fern, Chesterfield's top scorer with 17 goals before Easter, was once with Leicester, for whom he was top scorer in 1969–70. He continued his career with Luton in 1972 and transferred to Chesterfield last season.

Colin Tartt joins a fairly substantial pool of midfield players which includes Andy Kowalski, David Bentley, Wilf Smith and Alan Jones.

Tartt made his League debut with Port Vale in 1972–3 and made well over 150 League appearances for the club.

Kowalski graduated through the junior teams to take his first-team bow in 1972–3 and he has been a fairly regular member of the senior squad for the past three seasons. Bentley made his name with Rotherham United where, apart from a brief loan spell with Mansfield, he was a regular for six years.

Smith set out as an outstanding full-back with Sheffield Wednesday, earning six England under-23 caps. Coventry paid £100,000 for him in 1970 and he later switched to midfield. Following loan periods with Brighton and Millwall, he joined Bristol Rovers in 1975 and signed for Chesterfield a few weeks ago.

Jones joined Chesterfield from Halifax during the early weeks of this season. He had been a senior player at The Shay for three seasons. He began as a defender with Huddersfield, making his League debut in 1970–1.

An injury to veteran defender Len Badger, who broke a leg, meant that Glyn Chamberlain, who was signed from Burnley this season as a forward, has moved into the right-back position in a back four that looks fairly settled with Sian O'Neill, John Cottam and Ken Burton.

O'Neill was kept out of the Leeds United team by their many international stars but he soon proved himself after his transfer to Chesterfield in 1974 when he went straight into their senior team. Cottam joined Chesterfield from Nottingham Forest last summer. After initially making the Forest team in 1970–1 as substitute, he won a first-team place the following season.

Burton began his career with Sheffield Wednesday when they were in the First Division and he held a regular place for almost two seasons. He later went to Peterborough on loan before transferring to Chesterfield in 1973. He is a former England youth international.

Goalkeeper Phillip Tingay regained his place in goal this season, following the transfer of Steve Hardwick to Newcastle.

The Manager

Arthur Cox spent nine years as a player with Coventry City until an injury forced him to retire. Anxious to stay in the game, he took up coaching and was appointed to the training staff of Walsall.

He made quick progress and was soon on the move to Aston Villa. Later moves took him to Halifax and Preston and in 1974 he was appointed club coach to Sunderland.

Mr Cox remained at Roker Park until last season and then he decided to try his luck abroad. He spent three months in Turkey but when the Chesterfield job became vacant at the beginning of this season, and his application reached the short-list stage, he happily came back to this country to take up his first appointment as a club manager.

Spotlight on: Michael Baxter

BORN in Birmingham and now aged 20, Mick comes from a footballing family. He started his footballing career when at the age of eleven months he was taken to Villa Park to watch his father play. Bill Baxter was a member of the Wolves side from 1946 to 1956. He was then transferred to Aston Villa and would have gained a Cup Winners' medal in 1957 when Villa beat Manchester United but he tore a cartilage in the semi-final and so missed the match through injury. In 1958 he gave up playing to concentrate on training and coaching and stayed a further eight years at Villa Park looking after the players. In 1966 the family moved to Leven in Fifeshire where Bill became manager of East Fife.

Mick's brother, Stuart, is also a footballer and was at Deepdale for a few years before joining a Swedish team.

Michael went to Hawthorne Road Primary School in Birmingham and on moving to Scotland he attended Buckhaven High School in Fife where he represented the school at both football and cricket. Mick soon established himself as a promising footballer and he was selected for Fife County Schools. On Saturday afternoons he also played for Leven Royal Colts where he was first spotted by North End Chief Scout Jimmie Scott. At this time North End were interested in brother Stuart who is $3\frac{1}{2}$ years older than Mick.

Having a birthday during the Christmas holidays, Mick was able to leave school the minute he was fifteen and signed as an apprentice for North End. With brother Stuart to keep an eye on him, Mick soon settled down to life at the Club Hostel. One of his early thrills was when North End Juniors travelled to Holland and won a Youth Tournament there. He was voted North End Phoenix Club Young Player of the Year in 1974.

On his eighteenth birthday, Mick signed professional and within a few months had made his League debut against Grimsby Town at Blundell Park. That was his only appearance in 1974–5 but during the following season he made 17 appearances and scored a goal in our 3–4 defeat at home to Hereford. A most exciting match but unfortunate that we lost.

This season Mick has made a number of appearances with the injury to Dave Sadler helping him to gain much valuable experience in the first team.

For ambitions Mick would like to be successful as a player and would dearly love also to play either with or against his brother Stuart in a competitive game. Hobbies include driving and listening to music. The most influential character in Michael's career is quite obviously his father who knows from first hand experience all of the joys and disappointments of being a footballer. So he knows just how Mick feels when he has had a bad game—he's always ready to listen.

Mick also enjoys his training and has a great respect for Alan Kelly and Nobby Stiles. At Christmas he was engaged to be married to Janet.

One other ambition is to meet John Cleese and the Monty Python team and also Spike Milligan.
